

Making Hay Seminar

Friday, March 31, 2017

Lecture Hall at Helena College

1115 N Roberts, Helena

| Time | Topic | Presenter |
|---------------------|--|---|
| 8:00 am – 8:30 am | Registration | |
| 8:30 am – 8:45 am | Welcome & Introductions | Brent Sarchet, MSU/Lewis & Clark County Extension Agent |
| 8:45 am – 9:30 am | Annual forages | Brent Sarchet, MSU/Lewis & Clark County Extension Agent |
| 9:30 am – 10:15 am | Alfalfa establishment and variety selection | Emily Glunk, MSU Extension Forage Specialist |
| 10:15 am – 10:30 am | Break | |
| 10:30 am – 11:15 am | Nitrate testing, prevention, and symptoms of toxicity in livestock | Emily Lockard, MSU/Gallatin County Extension Agent |
| 11:15 am – 12:00 am | Fall harvest management and harvesting for quality vs. quantity | Emily Glunk, MSU Extension Forage Specialist |
| 12:00 pm – 12:45 pm | Lunch | |
| 12:45 pm – 1:00 pm | Load vans travel to site (weather permitting) | |
| 1:00 pm – 1:45 pm | Stand health and knowing when to replace (in the field weather permitting) | Emily Glunk, MSU Extension Forage Specialist |
| 1:45 pm – 2:15 pm | Strategies for stand replacement (in the field weather permitting) | Brent Sarchet, MSU/Lewis & Clark County Extension Agent |
| 2:15 pm – 2:30 pm | Load vans travel back to Helena College | |
| 2:30 pm – 3:00 pm | Evaluation & Wrap-up | Brent Sarchet, MSU/Lewis & Clark County Extension Agent |